

TOP 5: Most festive places in Jeffersonville

By Tomi Clark

530837@mygccs.com | @tomiliclarck

Staff writer Tomi Clark chose the five places that represent the most holiday spirit in the city of Jeff

BEST OF THE REST:

WINNER:

Photo by Sam Gatewood

1. Schimpff's Confectionery

347 Spring St., Jeffersonville, Ind.

Savory red hots, delicate little chocolates wrapped up in a festive holiday box, and pure white chocolate snowflakes falling right into your mouth. Schimpff's is special because you can tour the candy museum, and they are expanding the shop. Can't you taste the exquisite confectioneries melting on your tongue?

RUNNER UP:

Photo by Evan Petty

2. Hallmark

2784 Meijers Drive, Jeffersonville, Ind.

A tree, adorned with shimmering ornaments, greets your eyes. Cards, jewelry, books, candies, and toys line the displays awaiting to be given. It is unique because they have the special Keepsake Christmas ornaments. Hallmark is always decorated for the season's festivity, and a great place to buy memorable gifts that show you care.

Photo by Sam Gatewood

3. Ice Skating Rink

200 Spring St, Jeffersonville, Ind.

Majestically skating across the frozen ice, spinning and twirling. After the skate, warm up by sipping on some steaming hot chocolate. It's only open during the winter season so make sure to visit atleast once! Visit to get yourself into the season's spirit.

Photo by Sam Gatewood

4. Horner Novelty

310 Spring St, Jeffersonville, Ind.

A shop filled with wreaths, tinsel, and trees. Lights, ornaments, and garland. A place to visit just to admire the Christmas decorations. A perfect place to buy gifts, gather holiday party supplies, and gaze upon the lights to get you into the festive spirit.

Photo by Evan Petty

5. Walnut Ridge

2108 Hamburg Pike, Jeffersonville, Ind.

Gold and red bows line the garden, ornate wreaths hang over the opening. Walnut Ridge is known for flowers and gardening items -- but not just. What distinguishes them from others is they have exclusive, unlit trees for you to purchase and enjoy. During this time of year, they offer trees, decorations and gifts; perfect for the season!